

- A sidecar container in Kubernetes runs alongside the main container to provide additional services without modifying the main container
- Multiple containers in the same pod share the same network
 - They communicate:
 - Together via localhost
 - With external networks via pod's IP

Advantages of running a TCPDump side container

- Decoupled Monitoring
- Isolation
- Scalability
- Flexibility
- Debugging